

Season Five - Week 6

The Trinity and the World

As disciples, we share in Jesus' mission of saving love and are challenged to put our love and service into action.

As Christians, we are called to be a people of hope. Through the Church, the divine persons of the Blessed Trinity call us to renew the face of the earth and make way for the reign of God.

- ◆ Acts 17: 27 The sublime and intimate union of the Divine Persons of the Trinity is the model for all Christian believers. But all religions bear witness to the search for God that is shared by all human beings.
- ◆ 2 Corinthians 13: 11-13 Paul believed that if people experienced the unity of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit in their daily lives, they could bring that hope and harmony to their ministry of spreading the Good News of the Gospel.

“From the beginning, this one Church has been marked by a great diversity which comes from both the variety of God’s gifts and the diversity of those who receive them. Within the unity of the People of God, a multiplicity of peoples and cultures is gathered together.....The great richness of such diversity is not opposed to the Church’s unity.”

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, 814)

We are the wealthy heirs of the great lessons of the past, but we face a world which more than ever needs the grace of God in the evangelical sense.
In our work it's more important that we look to the future than the past.

Pope John XXIII, November 25, 1962, on the occasion of his 81st Birthday

Reflect

How do I experience the power of the Spirit working in our world today? How will I respond to that power?
